Dynamic New Website for Employers and Learners

Bournemouth and Brighton Based Web Design and Multimedia Company Stilton Studios has completed the first phase of the dynamic new website for the South West Lifelong Learning Network (SWLLN).

The new site has been tailor-made for Practitioners of the SWLLN and will be an effective resource for residents of the South West who are interested in work-based, flexible, university-level qualifications and employers who want to improve the skills of their workforce with minimal disruption and maximum gain.

“It is an organic website that will grow, develop and progress much like a similar website we developed for DSW (Dorset, Somerset and Wiltshire) that was hugely successful for learners in the South,” states Sam Jacobs, Managing Director of Stilton Studios.

Belinda Payne, South West Lifelong Learning Network Co-ordinator says,

“The South West Lifelong Learning Network is a new partnership that hopes to create innovative opportunities and improved quality of choice for learners to engage with Higher Education.

“We have worked with Stilton Studios on various Educational projects and are always pleased with their professional, friendly and innovative approach to all their work. We are extremely pleased to have Stilton Studios on board creating our on-line presence.”
